

I. Speaking Topics (20 to 45 minutes each)

1. Minefields In The Workplace: 6 Ethical Issues Christians Face in the World of Work

Discusses six major minefields in which many Christian men and women get caught. Again and again, we have seen one or more of these minefields bring a well-meaning Christian down---careers ruined, reputations lost, and marriages destroyed. Millions of Christians are attempting to succeed at work while serving their Lord and Savior. This talk offers the spiritual wisdom, guidance, and direction for getting safely through these minefields.

2. A Man's Guide to Work: 12 Ways to Honor God on the Job

(Easily adjusted for women)

Let's face it--most of us don't really know how to live out our faith on the job. We have a pretty good idea of how our relationship with God impacts us spiritually, but we're vague on what it means to walk with Christ when it comes to work and career. The transition from Sunday to Monday is fraught with questions--and perils. But it doesn't have to be that way. This practical talk discusses a surprising story about God's plan for you at work--a plan to "ordain" you for whatever you do for work.

3. Designed for Success, The 10 Commandments For Women In The Workplace

Women do face unique challenges at work. The playing field is not always even, the rules are often unspoken, and the path is rarely well marked. This talk helps you discover how to make the most of career opportunities and perform your job with passion and excellence and the tools needed to take charge of your future and achieve the success and satisfaction you deserve.

4. Principles of Biblical Entrepreneurship

An introduction to Biblical Entrepreneurship and a discussion of what is Biblical Entrepreneurship? Explore the difference between Biblical and Secular Entrepreneurship and 5 Biblical Entrepreneurship principles. Examine an example of a Biblical Entrepreneur and the 3 characteristics of a Biblical Entrepreneur and 3 steps to developing the characteristics of a Biblical Entrepreneur.

5. How To Prosper at Work...Without Sacrificing Integrity: A Biblical Approach to Work

The Bible has time-tested wisdom that is applicable to your work. This talk outlines these timeless biblical truths, and their practical applications to help you prosper in your work life without sacrificing your integrity.

III. Multi-week Curriculum: In-depth Discipleship Training and Study Programs

Taught by a trained instructor, these 6 to 12-week in-depth discipleship and spiritual growth study programs and curriculum are ideal for new believers as well as mature Christians who desire a better understanding of work from God's perspective and practical ways of integrating faith and work. Can be used for church-wide workshops, retreats, seminars, adult Bible study classes, small groups, men/women ministry or individual study (Study programs range from $50 to $150 per person and include instructor, PowerPoint, and individual study guides).

1. Integrating Faith and Work

A. Faith & Work, Christianity Today, Study Series, 8-week study with individual study guide. The Christian journey doesn't stop when the church service ends. When the new work week begins, it is easy, as Christians, to trudge through it without giving any thought to our faith. In this study, you'll explore the many ways that Christians approach work. Whether you are working the job of your dreams or feel that you cannot get through another day, you will explore the challenges of applying your faith to work.

B. Satisfying Work, Christian Living in the Workplace, R. Paul Stevens, Fisherman Bible Studies, 12-week study with individual study guide. Today we seek a whole new set of satisfactions from our jobs: they must be meaningful, appropriate to our talents, continuously challenging, and adequately remunerated. It's not surprising that even Christians are saying, "My work is satisfying." What is a Christian view of work? These studies, taken from Genesis to Revelation, will help you answer that question.

2. Integrating Faith and Business

- A. “In God We Trust,” Ten Biblical Principles for Business, 10-week study with individual study guide. This study is crafted around ten Biblical Principles that are believed to be core principles in managing any business or organization according to the word of God. Each principle has a series of passages to help you shape your thinking about what God’s intention is for business, relative to that principle.
- B. Business by the Book, Achieving True Success in the Marketplace, 8-week study with individual study guide. Teaches how to integrate scripture with daily work, how to grow your company profitably, how to develop leadership skills and how to grow in Christ so that you will be more like Him as a business leader.
- C. Biblical Entrepreneurship – Launching, Growing or Re-Inventing Your Business – God’s Way, 12-week study with individual study guide. Explores the concept called Biblical Entrepreneurship and starting a business or growing an existing one using Biblical principles and examples. It is designed to teach how to use the Word of God as a guide to exercising stewardship over His resources and to serve others while leading them to Jesus Christ. Completion of this course leads to a Certificate in Biblical Entrepreneurship and includes the principles and practices of a Biblical entrepreneur and the preparation of a Biblically-based business plan. Entrepreneurship is a tool that can be used to serve God’s people and further His kingdom in the earth. Herein underlies the need for Biblical Entrepreneurship.
